National League Will Boom with Tener as President---Mohawks in Title Game Today

JOHN TENER IS BEST FOR JOB

With Five More Years in Office He Will Make Nationals Real League.

New York, Nov. 2—The National League is to be congratulated upon its decision to re-elect John K. Tener as president for five years more at the meeting of the league in December. One of the reasons why the Ameri-can League has had the edge on its can League has had the edge on its rival during the past decade has been the constant shifting of authority in the older major organization, while Ban Johnson has ruled supreme and Tener has made mistakes during the League. But Tener's errors have been honest ones. They have been mistakes of judgment rather than bungling with intent to mislead, or a desire to be unfair.

Our attention has been called to the fact that "Lou" Doyle has been mentioned above as sharing "administrative" honors in local tennis events. We owe him an apology, as when we made that unfortunate reference we forgot that he had "cleaned up" in both the singles and doubles District championship events. The word "administrative" should have been omitted in his case.

Dr. James T. McClenihan, chairman of the green committee of the Washington Goff and Country Club, reports that there will be practically no changes made in that course during the winter months.
